

Sydney C. Freedman

-High school graduation King Edward 1943-46, 1/2 year art school.

Work Experience:

-Door boy/Usher at the Vogue Theatre 1943-46
Full Time: 1946-1948

-Doorman/Assistant Manager at Studio Theatre 1949-54 appointed Manager Sept. 1954. At age 26 was the youngest downtown manager in Canada.

-Supervised Quadra Theatre in Victoria for 1 year.

-Opened Canada's first triple theatre Lougheed Mall in 1969.

-Did all my own newspaper and radio ads. Was a director of B.C. Theatre's association.

-Won 12 international showmanship awards.

-Was a charter member of the Variety Club and a Crew member, in charge of publicity and promotion.

-Many years before Variety Club was formed promoted Easter and Christmas shows every year with gifts and treats for handicapped children. They were transported by Lions Club Bunny buses.

-Left motion picture industry in January 1972, worked for Pacific Press June 1972-October 1989 handling theatre and entertainment pages for The Province and then The Sun and The Province Newspapers.