St Botolph's Road, SEVENOAKS, Kent.

Dear Mr. Recey.

This is just to advise you that I sent off to you today the pair of Common Scoters and the pair of Garganeys. I do hope that you will receive them safely and that you will like the skins.

I shall hope this coming season to have a little more free time and so be able to get out with the gun a bit. Already with the typescript of my book away life is rather easier, at least one gets periods when the proofs have been done and despatched, free untill the next batch arrives. It is really quite a strange feeling.

You must let me know about the Alca torda skin, but I know how it feels to be without any example of a common bird in the collection.

Fodsy I picked up a mounted specimen of Corvus corax shot in this county about 1900; not a bad specimen, which I had known of it earlier though.

Well excuse more just now, With kind regards,

Yours very sincerely,

Kenneth Racey Esq.
