Dear Dr. Harrison;

Many thanks for your letter of March 21st. I mailed to you by Parcel Post, March 27th., the two Bonaparte Gulls and the two Sitka Crossbills and hope they will please you. I will look forward to the arrival of the Greater and Lesser Spotted Woodpeckers, with much pleasure.

I will be very glad indeed to receive your list of duplicates to which you refer as there are still many British birds I would like to secure.

I have for exchange two fine specimens of Whistling Swan, one an adult and the other a juv. This is Cygnus columbianus (Ord). In exchange I would like something out of the following list.

1 ad. Grey Lag-Goose.
1 ad. Lesser White-fronted Goose
1 ad. Bean Goose
1 ad. Red-breasted Goose,
1 ad. Brent Goose, Light or Dark ✓
ad. M & F. Garganey Duck ✓
" " " Tufted Duck. ✓
" " " European Teal. ✓
1 ad. " Smew. ?
1 " Ferruginous Duck.
ad. M & F Red Crested Pochards.

Do you happen to know anyone who might be interested?

Never mind the Rook, but thanks just the same.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth Racey
