

R. CUMMING

10/72.

Lure Of The Sea

INGLEWOOD, CALIF.

John Sullivan bought a couple years ago from The gas station got it in a new transmission in a daughter. Her Father was China Seas after his Chi he died, the daughter in the trade for the '63 Po that, it belonged to a m occasionally. He got it is known, except that he tween 1935 and 1947.

When John Sullivan had to get extensive bra California registration, original 1935 engine, an The inside is padded wi with nautical accessories, much like a camper. John said that he once drove it up to San Francisco and back. When the photo was taken, John was selling it for $800.

"Lure of the Sea", Inglewood, Calif., October 29, 1972.

IF YOU OR ANYONE IN VANC. WANTS THE LINER + CAN SWING $800,
HE'S; JOHN SULLIVAN, 1404 N. OVERHILL DR.
INGLEWOOD, CALIF. 90302

from the desk of
HOLLY WOOD

-FLASH-

11/1/72.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE;
JUST GOT A NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS
GRANT, WORTH 4,500
CLAMS! IT HAP-PENED YESTERDAY!

ITS A GRANT IN+ FOR STILL PHOTOG. AMAZING!

Cumming